Email filtering is a very useful tool to manage your inbox. If you need to filter an email using webmail please follow these steps.

IMPORTANT: Rules created in webmail will only effect new emails. If you want to run the rule on current email, you have to open your email in Outlook. In Outlook you can run on current emails.